

IGL Weekly Bulletin

WEEK OF JANUARY 27

IGL Events

Tuesday, January 29

Screening of Contagion with introduction by Jennifer Steele from the Tufts Veterinary School

7 PM, Pearson 106
Sponsored by EPIIC Film Series

Thursday, January 31

Social Enterprise in the Real World:
Idealism vs. Reality

5:30 PM, ASEAN Auditorium
Sponsored by Empower

Join the Empower Program and the Institute for Business in the Global Context for a discussion with Amanda Judge F09, the proud Founder & CEO of Andean Collection, which she started while interviewing rural Ecuadorian women for her master's thesis on poverty reduction strategies.

RSVP Required: <http://ajudge.eventbrite.com/>

Announcements

- The ALLIES Intellectual Roundtable is at BU from January 25-27. See their Facebook event for more details!
- Interested in photography? Check out PNDP's "Burma in Transition" exhibition at Slater Concourse in Aidekman.
- Over 60 international students from China, Haiti, Iraq, Israel, Russia, Rwanda and Singapore, will be attending this year's EPIIC symposium. If you are interested in hosting a student from Feb. 19-25, e-mail patricia.letayf@tufts.edu. All you need to do is provide a bed or couch for the student to sleep on!

